While the Crowds Refrain from Manifestations of Displeasure, the Presence of the King Creates No Enthusiasm-Newspapers Refrain from Editorial Comments Upon His Visit-A Page Devoted to Friend-Germany.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Berlin, Jan. 26.-The Prince of Wales, who is to represent King Edward at the celebration of the birth of Emperor William tomorrow, visited the Prussian princes, Count Von Buelow, the imperial chancellor, the various ambassadors, and other distinguished personages this morning. Soon after 1 o'clock Emperor William and the prince drove in a closed carriage to the barracks of the First Royal dragoons, Queen Victoria's own. A triumphal archway of evergreens had been erected in front of the barracks and the regiment was drawn up in parade order. The band played the British anthem, and after the regiment had marched past the emperor and the Prince of Wales, the latter proceeded to the regimental mess room, where luncheon was served. The party included the British ambassador to Germany, Sir F. C. Lascelles, and helm Eitel-Friederick and Prince Henry | He said no office, however high, would of Prussia. The luncheon terminated at 3 o'clock, when Emperor William re- the people of this country have exturned to the castle, and the Prince of Wales took a train for Potsdam, there lay a wreath upon the tomb of the late Empress Frederick.

No Disrespect Shown. Emperor William in his speech toasting King Edward at the military luncheon in the barracks of the First Royal dragoons, touchingly referred to the death of Queen Victoria and adverted to the wonderful colonial tour of the Prince of Wales as exemplifying the greatness and the extent of the British empire. He invited the company to drink to the health of the Prince of Wales as the representative of the British army, to which toasts the Prince of Wales suitably responded. Berlin, Jan. 26.-Today passed without any disrespect being shown to the Prince of Wales, who arrived yesterday evening to represent King Edward at the celebration of the anniversary of the birth of Emperor William next Monday. German crowds have a too deeply abiding respect for royal personages and are too thoroughly policed to ever jeer them. But, in a city where the lifting of one's hat is as universal future years I shall never accept any as ordinary civility, it was singular to office, however high, which might see the passing crowds with never a jeopardize that love."

The last experience abroad of the Prince of Wales was his departure, amid thunderous cheers, from the shores of New Foundland, while the streets through which the prince was obliged to be driven today on his way were without one single British flag.

Friendship for United States. The National Zeitung concludes a page editorial on the friendship between the United States and Germany in these words: "The only object of the visit of Prince Henry to the United States is the cultivation of this sentiment. The German emperor could give the United States no better proof of the feelings and sentiments animating him and the German people, in regard to the greatness development of the Union as a civilizing power, than in sending his brother there. Prince Henry goes, as it were, as the interpreter of Germany's friendship for the United States. He is the first German prince from the old reigning house who treads the soil of the great republic, and undoubtedly his nent men of the Union will exercise a beneficial effect upon national relations "The visit of Prince Henry must dissipate all the foolish and malicious assertions of political antagonism between Germany and the United States and of German plans of conquest in the American sphere of influence, and instead thereof, strengthen and establish feelings of mutual recognition and equality of standing. No treaty or alliance between Germany and the United States is needed. Ever since the existence of the United States, peace, friendship and trade intercourse have prevalled between us. Prince Henry's trip shows that we wish to remain in the same relations in the future, and the reception which the people, the government and public opinion are preparing for him on American soil, will give splendid proof that the Americans

Chicago, Jan. 26.—Representatives of the 200,000 Poles living in Chicago met in mass meetings in different parts of this city tonight to protest against the alleged crucities of Prussia in her Pol-ish provinces. Nearly all of the speakers maintained that the final effort of the Prussian officials was to crush out even the language of Poland, and that this culminating effort of the German officials in Poland was imbued solely with hatred and contempt for the people they rule. It was told how children, flogged by their German teachers for saying their prayers in their native language, had been arrested and thrown into prison, together with their par-ents, who voiced their protests. These and other indignities recited caused the deepest feeling and strong words against Prussia were voiced on every

Considerable Time to Spare Is

Promised in the House and Senate.

IMPORTANT MEASURES TO BE CONSIDERED

Oleomargarine and Hill Bills Will Occupy the Attention of the House, While the Senate Will Consider the Philippines Tariff Measure-A. Majority of Senators Will No Doubt Be Heard on the Bill Before It Is Passed-Senator Nelson Will Push the Bill Creating a Department of Commerce.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press Washington, Jan. 26.-The house leadrs have made no programme for the work of the present week, as there are no measures of importance pressing for action, although the oleomargarine bill and the Hill bill for the exchangeability of gold and silver are both on the calendar and may be taken up before long. Thus far no exact time has been fixed for either of these measures and the lesser bills will take their chances as opportunity presents itself. There promises to be considerable time to spare during the week, as there are no appropriation bills ready to fill the gap when bills of a general nature are lacking. The chief interest of the week centres in the opening of hearings by the ways and means committee on the reduction of war revenue taxes. The committee gives tomorrow to this subject, hearing the beer interests in the morning and the tea interests in the afternoon. On Tuesday the committee returns to the subject of Cuban reciprocity, hearsugar, and also several Cuban planters who have come to the United States

Philippine Tariff Bill. The senate will devote its principal time to the Philippine tariff bill, It is the purpose of Senator Lodge, who is in charge of the bill, to keep it before the senate persistently until it is disposed of. He does not count on final action for some time. It is not the present purpose of the friends of the bill to debate it, but the attacks which will be made on it and upon the entire administration of Philippine affairs inevitably will bring replies from many of the Republican senators. It is understood that a majority of the senators on the Democratic side of the chamber will be heard before the bill is passed. Among those who will speak early are Senators Carmac, Money, Teller, Culberson, Turner, Patterson, Jones, of Arkansas, and Bacon, Senator Lodge will seek the earliest opportunity to have the amendments recommended by his committee formally adopted, but probably will not press these when senators are prepared to proceed with set speeches. Senator Nelson will take advantage of every chance to have the bill creating a department of commerce considered, with the view to having favorable action upon it.
